EDITORIAL

Change It NOW

One of the things that keeps any government's efficiency at a fairly low ebb is the tendency to let things remain as they are. Andover's school committee is now in a position where it can either make a definite improvement or run the risk of maintaining the status quo an indefinite number of years.

A few weeks back the school committee voted as a matter of policy, that it was in favor of unifying the junior high and the senior high under one head, as was suggested by the finance committee before town meeting. The principal of the junior high school has resigned to accept a superintendency in Rhode Island, and it would seem that this would be a very good time to make the necessary administrative change.

Monday evening, several of the present teachers and one out-of-towner were interviewed for the position of Junior high principal, which leads to the conclusion that while the committee feels it would be a good idea to have one head, this is not a good time to make the necessary change. It might well be that the committee is giving a great deal of consideration to the feelings of Principal Lovely of the high school, and possibly they are waiting until he retires under the usual retirement provision.

The real danger comes in the appointment of a new principal for the junior high school, because a few years from now some of the then school committee may well be a little afraid to hurt the new principal's feelings by putting somebody over him. There is also the danger that whoever is appointed now as principal of the junior high school will be promoted to the headmastership of the two schools when Mr. Lovely retires.

For this position we're going to need somebody pretty outstanding in the educational field, and it would be worth paying quite a bit to get such a man to oversee the education of our youngsters at that rather difficult period in their lives. It's not always wise to promote from within the ranks, but unfortunately there is a tendency to do this, as we have seen in several of our town departments, including the school committee.

We feel that some plan can be worked out which would have due regard for the feelings of the present administration. Even if this were impossible, there's not one member of the school committee who, when he really looks into the real aim of school work, would not place the welfare and the proper upbringing of our children above the feelings of any person in the system.

COMMUNICATION

May 19, 1947

Gentlemen:

Am I too late to put in my order for the "Andover Historical Book"? If not, will you please advise so that I may forward reimbursement.

May I take the opportunity to congratulate you on a truly wonderful "little" paper, that really says a mouthful. I enjoy it.

Sincerely,

A Reader

(Ed. Note—No, it's not too late. We are printing some extra, in addition to the several thousands previously ordered, but the supply is limited and there will be no reprint edition. If you haven't ordered, you'd better.)

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING

A special town meeting will be held some time in the middle of June, although the date has not yet been set, nor is the warrant complete.

The main item will be a change in the planning rules to allow the erection of buildings connected with the Augustinian College near the North Andover line. A hearing has already been held before the planning board, which has given its approval to the change.

The school committee has also petitioned for an article for funds for fire escapes at the Stowe school in answer to a recommendation by state engineers.

There will also be an article to replace the boiler at the town infirmary. Two sections gave way a few nights ago.

BLACK 'N BLUE

White and yellow are the colors to wear in mosquito-ridden regions and black, blue, and red are the colors to avoid, entomologists say.

NO PROFIT NO SERVICE

The Eastern Mass. Street Railway company has agreed to make a survey of the West Andover territory in answer to a recent petition requesting bus service. John A. Donovan, chairman of the board of trustees, in saying that the company will be guided by the advice of the survey engineers, added:

"We appreciate your interest in the matter and thank you for calling it to our attention. However, a word of caution is not amiss. Our cost of operating buses at present is 47 cents a mile, and, in view of the increased fare, it is more than ever important that we undertake no new routes unless they are profitable."

Students' Exhibit

The public is cordially invited to attend an exhibition of students' art which will be presented by the pupils of the Junior and Senior High School on June 4 and 5 from 2:30 to 4:00 in the Junior High school music room. The work will be judged on Wednesday morning and the prize-winning pictures will be labeled by the afternoon opening.

Twenty dollars has been contributed by the November Club and an additional five dollars from the Shawsheen Woman's Club which will be awarded in "Best of the Year" prizes, judged by a jury composed of Miss Alice Bell, Mrs. Maud Morgan and Abbott Cheever. Mrs. Morgan will also give a prize for the best drawing and the first prize winning painting will be framed by the courtesy of Look Photo service. It will be hung in the Junior High school building.

High school and 9th grade pupils have been making bookplates and the prize winning design will receive ten dollars, donated by Miss Miriam Putnam, and will be used by the Memorial Hall Library. Two honorable mention prizes of an art book will also be awarded. The jury judging the bookplates will consist of Bartlet Hayes, Jr., Mrs. Cornelius Heyn and Mr. Campbell of the Haverhill Public Library.

Fifty Dollar Dinner

A Protestant Laymen's Dinner will be held in the Hotel Copley Plaza on June 9, under the auspices of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. Charles P. Taft, newly elected president of the Federal Council of Churches, and the first layman to hold that position, will be the main speaker.

The affair, which will be attended by 1,000 prominent persons, who will contribute $50 for the support of the Council, is coincidental with the 45th anniversary of the organization. Governor Robert F. Bradford is honorary chairman, and Robert Cutler, president of the Old Colony Trust Company, is chairman of the dinner committee. Tables are being secured from individual laymen and women, local churches, denominational headquarters, and related agencies. In addition, local communities are being organized with the help of key people who are working to obtain pledges for tables.

No One Horse Town This Weekend

Andover's two-day horse show, sponsored by the Firemen's Relief association, is drawing nigh, and the grounds, equipped with all the comforts of a super deluxe show, are in readiness.

The grandstand, with a capacity of 500, has gumwood seats and overlooks the 150 x 225 ring with its ideal slowly rounding curves. Beyond is the parking area for private cars, and to the left is a special lot for trucks and trailers. Directly to the left of the ring is the large ready ring where horses may be exercised before strutting their stuff with others members of their class. Then comes the stabling area, roomy and accessible to water.

To the right is a long fenced lane leading from the ring to the hunt course built for the convenience and safety of spectators. The natural hunt course occupies most of a twenty-acre field.

Behind the grandstand is a section assigned to the caterer, where varieties of appetizing food — not limited to hot dogs and pop — will be sold.

Several local people will be among the many exhibitors from the New England area, and the trophies and money prizes will be well worth the stiff competition. A unique event for the town, the horse show will provide plenty of interest for horse fanciers and those who fancy owning one some day.

Benefit Movie

What could be more appropriate than a benefit movie for a projector?

The Ballardvale Parent Teacher Association has almost completed its drive for funds to purchase a movie projector for the Bradlee school, and will sponsor a benefit movie at the Andover Playhouse on June 6th, with the hope of reaching its goal.

The double feature show will include James Cagney in "13 Rue Madeleine" plus "Banjo", a dog story. School children are selling the tickets, which may also be purchased on request from the box office. The movies are good and the cause is just and deserving of your generous patronage.

Hobby Show

The Junior Woman's Union is sponsoring a hobby show in the West Church vestry, June 7, from 2:00 to 5:30. Local hobbyists will display their collections or arts which will include shawls, antique quilts, hand painted trays, hooked rugs, old glass and silver, stamps and many other articles of interest.

Tickets now on sale may also be purchased at the door.

Dedication

Three Generations At Hilton-Hartman Wedding Ceremony

Before a bower of old fashioned white lilacs, apple blossoms, and Narcissi, Miss Mary Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Hartman, of 15 Fleming Avenue, Shawsheen, became the bride of Irvin Hilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hilton, Lowell Street, Rev. John Gaskill, Pastor of the Church, performed the solemn and impressive ceremony assisted by Rev. Newman Matthews, Pastor Emeritus, who had married the groom's parents just 28 years ago in the same parish. The beauty of the service was enhanced by organ music played by Miss Marion Abbott, Church Organist.

Miss Hartman chose for attendants, Mrs. Agnes Hohlfelder, her aunt, as matron of honor, Mrs. Lee Shuler and Mrs. Mildred Howlett for bridesmaids. The groom had a life-long friend, Winton Ramsay of Hyannis for his best man. Alan Guild, another boyhood friend and Lee Shuler, a friend of Army days, were ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore blush pink skinner satin, embroidered ivy with seed pearls, bordering the dropped neck-line and belt. The wide full skirt ended in a long train. Her finger tip veil of imported French illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gardenias, ivy and stephanotis.

Her Matron of Honor wore self-embroidered pink ninon with a head dress of sweet peas and stephanotis, and carried a cascade bouquet of variegated sweet peas, stephanotis and ivy. The two bridesmaids wore contrastind gowns of rose pink and periwinkle blue frosted ninon. Mrs. Shuler carried a cascade bouquet of dark rose sweet peas with stephanotis and ivy, and Mrs. Howlett carried a cascade bouquet of pale pink sweet peas, stephanotis and ivy. Their head-dress were of the same flowers.

The brides mother wore a dusty pink gown and hat with gold and pearl accessories and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. The groom's mother wore a powder blue gown and white hat with silver accessories and corsage of American Beauty roses.

The young couple were proud to have their two grandmothers and a grandfather present. The bride's grandmother wore a dark blue ensemble with a corsage of gardenias and sweet peas, the groom's grand-

TO INCREASE B. P. W. PERSONNEL

The superintendent of the Board of Public Works was authorized Monday night to increase the personnel of his department by two men. He was also given authority to hire temporary help when needed.

Work is proceeding on the tarring of the roads, and the sidewalk work will follow.

A NEW BROOM TO SWEEP CLEAN

The street sweeper ordered as a result of the 1946 town meeting is expected in Andover in a week or ten days. It is now in Boston.

The bull-doing blade has arrived for the big tractor which reached here during the winter.

There has been no information whatsoever on the grader which was ordered after the special town meeting in December of 1945.

No Camping

Some gypsies looked over a lot near a gas station on South Main street, but that's all they're going to do about it. Residents from that area petitioned the selectmen not to allow the camping of gypsies there, and the police chief will toss them out if they try to linger within our borders.

Sand and Stone

June 1st, the deadline for the filing of the auditor's report on the Essex sand and gravel case, is approaching, but nothing has been seen of the report. Chief Justice Higgins of the Superior Court had asked the selectmen to notify him if this date were not kept.

The company, meanwhile, has agreed to warn its drivers about loading in answer to a complaint about the frequency with which stones fall on Andover street.

Building Encouraged

Approval has been given for the erection of a four-apartment house on High street. The Board acted unanimously, but with reluctance. It was felt that under existing housing conditions no other course could be taken.

Permit has also been given to erect a prefabricated house on a narrow lot. To date three permits have been given for pre-fabs. The building inspector has been instructed to send all applicants for prefabricated construction to the selectmen.

Reverse Route

Parking on the north side of Chestnut street will shortly be eliminated entirely, in order to expedite the passage of buses down that street. On the south side, parking will be eliminated for 25 feet on both ends, in order that the bus can swing properly.

When the signs have been installed, the buses again will leave Main street and enter Punchard avenue, re-entering Main street from Chestnut street. Since town meeting the buses have been going the opposite way to make their turn.

SOCIAL WORKERS TO HOLD ALL-DAY INSTITUTE HERE

"Economic Trends and Their Implications for Social Work Planning" will be the theme of an all-day institute for professional social workers and agency board members at Memorial Hall library on June 18. Discussion leaders will be Dr. A. Howard Myers, a member of the faculty of Boston College of social work, labor consultant and labor arbitrator, formerly regional director of the National Labor Relations Board; and Miss Dorothy L. Book, dean Boston College School of Social Work, and president of the Massachusetts Conference of Social Work.

The Institute will discuss current conditions and industrial trends in the Merrimack Valley, as related to the report of the President's economic planning commission. It is also planned to consider the effect of these conditions on social planning for the communities and in terms of changing functions of social agencies.

More than forty social workers from both public and private agencies are expected to attend. The Institute is sponsored by the Merrimack Valley Regional Committee of the Massachusetts Conference of Social Work. Mr. Donald M. Chase, executive director of the Haverhill Community Chest, is chairman. Other members of the committee are Miss Esther Huckins and Mr. Robert P. Hogg of Lowell, Miss Miriam Putnam of Andover, and Miss Elizabeth Harris of Lawrence.

Everett Lundgren Organ Dedicated Sunday Morning Malcolm Lundgren Plays Prelude; Former Pastor Delivers Sermon

The delicate scent of apple blossoms and the soft strains of "In the Garden" blended in sweet accord, as members and friends of the Baptist church gathered for the morning service and dedication ceremony of the Everett Lundgren Memorial organ, last Sunday. The new organ, the first Wurlitzer Electronic to be manufactured since the war, was played by Malcolm Lundgren, who chose as the prelude several of his father's favorite selections. It was given by Mrs. Ruth Lundgren and family in memory of Everett Lundgren, whose useful and charitable life ended on September 8, 1944.

Rev. E. Elton Smith, former pastor of the Baptist church, who had officiated at the funeral services of Mr. Lundgren, returned to the parish to deliver the sermon. Rev. Wendell Lloyd Bailey led the service dedication and litany.

Andover Boys Have Reunion in Japan

14 May, 1947
Sendai, Japan

Dear Sirs:

Just thought that we would drop you all a few lines. You see, we are over here in Japan, and when two Buddies from good old Andover, Mass., so far from, get together, we thought a few of our old friends back there would like to know about it.

We are writing this little note in hopes that you will say a few words in our Home Town paper, the Andover Townsman, to the effect that a few of Andover's men are still over here and would like to be remembered to you all.

You see we, T/5 Brenton Davey and Sgt. Tommy Churchill, met each other coming over to Japan on the same ship, the "General Hodges" last November and after not seeing each other for six months, we had the pleasure once again and believe me it sure was good to talk over Andover and the people we know back there.

T/5 Brenton Davey and Sgt. Tom Churchill are both with the 11th Airborne Division. T/5 Davey is stationed with the 511th Parachute Infantry Regiment, and Sgt. Churchill is stationed with the 11th Parachute Maintenance Company, 11th A/B Division.

Thanks again for everything.

Sincerely,

Just two crazy G.I.'s
TOM and MIKE

Twelve From Andover In Abbot Commencement Exercises To Begin Memorial Day And Continue Through Week-End

English country dancing on the school green and choral singing on the steps of Abbot's oldest building will begin the weekend program on Friday, May 30, of the 118th commencement of Abbot academy. The exercises will come to a close on Monday morning when the 57 Abbot blue-gowned seniors are given their diplomas by Miss Marguerite Capen Hearsey, the principal. Miss Hearsey, in the midst of a leave of absence from the school, returned from Bermuda on Friday in order to be present at the graduation exercises.

Marching from the school lawn, led by the kilted Scottish bagpipe band made up of Scottish Highlanders who reside in the community, the procession of graduates, underclassmen, faculty and trustees in full academic regalia, will make its way down the village street to the South Church where the final exercises will be held. The speaker for the occasion is Dr. Lewis Perry, Headmaster Emeritus of Phillips Exeter Academy.

the public, is that of "the last chapel." This event occurs on Saturday morning at the customary chapel hour and is attended by the whole school. At this time awards are made, including the announcement of prize winners in both extra-curricular and academic pursuits. A high point among these announcements is the totalling up of the gifts which have been made by the Abbot students and faculty to world-wide causes, such as The World Student Service Fund, the CARE packages to European countries, the gift to the French school which is particularly under Abbot's care, the American Red Cross, the Hindman Tennessee Mission School, and local causes, such as the Community Fund and several other beneficiaries. The sum will total a figure approaching $3,500.00 for the school year. The "last chapel" program ends with a farewell address made by the principal to the outgoing class.

The gowns were lovely — The ladies lovelier — The music soft and low — The gentlemen attentive — The orchid the favorite flower. You're right, it was the Punchard Junior-Senior Prom.

Memorial Day

Punchard held its Memorial Day assembly, first period Thursday morning, in the auditorium. The guest speaker was State Senator Phillip K. Allen. There will be no school on Friday.

Baseball

Punchard's baseball season is the best in years. We have played eight games, winning seven and losing only one. We are second in the league, with our traditional rival, Johnson High, leading. We have two games with Johnson. The first was played last week, and at this writing the final score is not in. The second will be played Thursday. These are crucial games in the Punchard schedule and should be most exciting games of the season.

Junior-Senior Prom

Last Friday night, the big social affair of the school year was held in the Gymnasium, which was decorated in green and white. There were silhouettes on the back wall, which took Jeanne Kenney hours of painstaking labor to make. The other members of the Decorating Committee worked all of Thursday afternoon. Thursday evening and all day Friday putting up birch trees and the streamers from the middle of the ceiling. The green and white streamers were arranged in sections around the hall, to form a striped roof effect while, through the center of the white sections, strings of roses were strung. Roland Russell's Orchestra provided the music, and the evening moved all too swiftly to the close. It's all over now but the bills.

Track

Chalk up another win for the Track Team. Last Monday we won a meet with Lawrence High and Central Catholic. This meet was held in the Lawrence Stadium, and like all of the meets, was open to the public, admission free. The small crowd saw a thrilling spectacle, with Punchard winning by fifteen points.

Letters

Tension is running high among those students who have gone out for sports this year, because the coaches are making up the lists of those who are to receive their letters for athletics. Every one is counting up his points and worrying about whether or not he has enough. The letters will be awarded soon for all sports including, for the first time, the gym and track teams.

Banquet Committee To Hold Meeting

The committee for the Punchard Alumni reunion banquet will meet at the High school Monday night at 7:30. All are requested to be there to complete plans for the affair.

REPORT OF MARCH OF DIMES

Shattering all records in the history of the annual March of Dimes Campaign, through the generosity of the general public and the efforts of various committees, Daniel R. Harrington of Haverhill, County Campaign Director, announced this week that the total sum raised in the Essex County area for this year's treatment and rehabilitation of victims of infantile paralysis was $63,321.02.

Although losing this year one of its major sources of revenue, the results of the 1947 campaign easily surpassed all other high marks achieved in past years, and brought the highest praise to the residents and committees of Essex County from Basil O'Connor, President of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

In making public the most satisfactory response on the part of his associates in the great work for polio victims, and to the men, women and children who contributed generously to the cause, Mr. Harrington expressed his thanks to all of them, pointing out that because of such joint co-operation, Essex County has additionally been enabled next month to open a Summer camp, the first of its kind in the nation, at Plum Island for the 400 county children who are in varying stages of paralysis from the dread disease.

The Team Slumps

The baseball team has slumped during the past week by taking two straight defeats. On Friday, May 23, the squad trekked to O'Connell Playstead in Lawrence, where the were downed by a hard hitting Central Catholic nine. The Andover boys were edged out by their host 5-3, making this their first loss of the season. "Southpaw" Jack McCarthy, in his first meeting with Central Catholic defeated them 7-5, but on Friday his pitching just wasn't up to par.

On Monday the still fighting Junior High squad suffered their second defeat when they played Stoneham Frosh. The costly errors and poor batting were the chief reasons for the slump. The game was close up to the seventh inning and then came the drop. The score was 6-4. The Andover team will travel to Reading on Thursday, May 29, and there they will meet the Parker Junior High nine.

Inter-Class Track Meet

Joe Ratyna, our school president, paved the way to victory for Andover in an Inter-Class Track meet with the Lawrence seconds last Monday. Joe showed outstanding ability and results by taking first place in the running broad jump, 18 ft. 13-4 ins.; first in the hundred yards dash, 11:4 sec.; and first in the 220-yards dash, 25:6 sec.; totaling 15 points for his team.

Assemblies

The Memorial Day program was held in the Auditorium on Thursday, May 29, during the second period. Room 14, with all members taking part, was in charge. The poem, "In Flanders Field" was the feature of the program, and with it was a very dignified memorial service. Since the nature of the program was serious, it was requested that there be no applause. Following this service, Senator Philip K. Allen, a veteran of World War II, was the guest speaker.

The assembly last Thursday was sponsored by the Memorial Hall Library and featured as its guest speaker, Mr. John Cronin of Boston. Mr. Cronin is known as "The man with a hundred voices," and he gave a most interesting and thrilling review of the book, "On to Oregon," by H. W. Morrow. Last summer there appeared an article in the Saturday Evening Post about Mr. Cronin, and it was read and enjoyed by many. Following his book review, Mr. Cronin displayed several other books, all of which are great favorites among the students and can be found in either the School or Town Library.

Art Exhibition

There will be an art exhibition in the Junior High School Music Room on June 4th and 5th, from 2:30 to 4:00 p. m. Tickets have been issued to parents and students and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance. All exhibits will be from Grades 8 through 12, and special prizes will be given for those selected by the judges.

Attended Fashion Show

Last weekend Miss Augie Dantos of the Homemaking Department, took two ninth grade girls, Elizabeth Bololan and Barbara Hagopian to a Fashion Show, given by the New England School of Art, in the Commander Hotel, Cambridge. Both girls, who are very fine dress-makers, were very happy and enthused about the whole thing. Both intend to carry this talent still further, by attending schools of design upon leaving High school.

Library Books

Three new books have been purchased by the library:

1. "The 21 Balloons" by William Rene du Bois. If you want a trip around the world in a balloon read this story—more than half the book is based on scientific truth. The rest is absolute nonsense.
2. "The Eskimo Hunter" by Florence Hayes. This book tells about the author's travels among the Eskimos. It is the story of Kapoonga, the Eskimo Boy, and of the fun and hard work of his people.
3. "The Presidents in American History" by Charles A. Beard. This is an account of the lives and administrations of each of our Presidents—from Washington to Truman. It is newly revised and up to date material, illustrated with portraits of the presidents.

School Committee Hears Candidates For J. H. S. Principal

At a special meeting Monday night, the school committee began its interview of candidates for the Junior High school principalship. All interviews will be carried on by the full committee, and numerous candidates will be considered before the final decision is made.

Local men already in the school system who came before the board this week were Charles Gregory, Joseph Doherty and Kenneth McKiniry. Also interviewed were Franklin O. White of Plymouth.

It was decided that the committee would sponsor an article at Special Town Meeting to secure funds for fire escapes to be installed at Stowe school, as recommended by Mr. Moynihan, state fire inspector. The sum of money required has not yet been determined.

In accordance with the ruling recently adopted which permits the hiring of married teachers, Mrs. Gertrude Hardy was re-elected a teacher in the Andover schools at a salary of $2850. She will begin her regular duties in September.

The next regular meeting of the committee will be held on Tuesday night, June 3.

Policy Re Governor's Tax Message Voted Unanimously By State League

Four local members attended the 27th annual convention of the Massachusetts League of Women Voters, held May 13 and 14 at the Hotel Sheraton in Worcester. Mrs. A. G. Baldwin, Mrs. John S. Barss, Mrs. Byron Weiner, Mrs. Tatelman and Mrs. Harold Rafton were the Andover representatives present at either or both days of the convention. Mrs. Baldwin spoke on "Highlights of the National Council" during Wednesday's session.

Adoption of the budget and a program of work for 1947-48 took up the major portion of Tuesday's program, and assisting in carrying out the program will be First Vice President Mrs. Baldwin and, on the nominating committee, Mrs. Barss.

The delegates were immensely interested in a talk, "The Role of Government in Helping Maintain High Levels of Production and Employment," given by Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, former Congresswoman from Connecticut.

Tax Message

Regarding the Governor's tax message, the League unanimously agreed:

"We approve the following objectives of the Governor's tax message as supplemented by his radio talk; increased state aid to municipalities, particularly for education, public assistance and highway construction; abolition of state tax both in itself and as a basis for distribution of state aid; proposed economies and department reorganization.

"We approve financing this program by: increased corporation tax, increased tax on earned income, two cents additional gas tax.

"We oppose, however, the suggested sales tax, and suggest instead further economies in government administration and exploration of additional sources of revenue, including further excise taxes, such as may be placed on luxury items, lowered basic exemption for tax on earned income from $2000 to $1000, and reconsideration of the dependency at its present allowance of $250."

National Council

The League of Women Voters of the United States, at its recent council meeting, stressed as the two major jobs for the coming year, public understanding of atomic energy and a stable international economy.

Request Action

In view of the expected adjournment of Congress in July, a request for immediate action has been made on several bills, with emphasis on tariff on imported wool.

On April 7 the Senate passed a bill (S. 814) authorizing the Commodity Credit Corporation to continue through 1948 its program of support prices for domestic wool, at the 1946 price. When it went over to the House, the House agriculture committee added an amendment instructing the Secretary of Agriculture to impose a "fee" on imported wool up to 50 per cent, whenever he finds that the importation of any such articles will interfere with the U. S. wool price support program. This amendment in effect permits a cabinet officer without consultation with other departments or approval by the President to impose a 50 per cent tariff in addition to the existing tariff. This constitutes an indirect attack on the economic foreign policy of the United States. The threat of its approval by Congress has already had serious repercussions at Geneva, where our negotiators are trying to establish a world pattern of reduction of trade barriers through negotiation. Australia and New Zealand have indicated that they will refuse to agree to reduction of United Kingdom preferences if such an obstacle is placed in the way of their wool exports to this country.

This bill is now before the House rules committee. Let your Representatives and your Senators know you disapprove of this Section (4).

Receives Summer Science Fellowship

Union college has awarded 50 six-week General Electric Science fellowships for summer study to science teachers in eight northeastern states. Roscoe E. Dake of Hidden Field has been selected from Phillips Academy, and with the class will be taught the theory behind scientific discoveries made during the war years in physics and chemistry. The summer students will also witness the actual use of the discoveries through visits to modern industrial laboratories.

Best of Their Kind

A group of fifty students from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, spent last Friday judging two Holstein herds, one at Wild Rose Farm and one at Clover Farm. Both are located on Lowell street, the former owned by Sidney P. White and the latter by John Bolton.

The farms were selected because their Holstein herds are outstanding throughout the state. Professor Foley of the animal husbandry department accompanied the students.

CONTINUE PLANS FOR ENLARGED VESTRY

A special meeting of the West Parish Church was held in the vestry on Wednesday evening at which time it was voted to proceed with the plans for the enlargement of the vestry as drawn up by the architect and to make plans to raise the necessary funds. John G. Gaskill, member ex-officio.

Sceptered Slips?

American public schools are "petticoat-ruled", according to H. F. Collins, representative of the British Ministry of Education, on a visit to Phillips Academy this week-end. Mr. Collins, who, with F. T. Arnold, has been touring the country, studying American schools and their courses, said he was particularly impressed with the fact that male teachers were leaving the profession in large numbers to find jobs which offer higher salaries.

The British Ministry of Education sent Collins and Arnold, both of whom bear the title of "His Majesty's Staff Inspector", to study methods of education in the United States and to make a report which would aid the ministry in forming new programs for Britain's state schools, corresponding to our public schools. Collins, whose special field is modern languages, pointed out that their survey was concerned almost entirely with our public schools, and that Andover was the only independent school which they had visited.

MARKETING with Marjorie

Are you planning to pick up and picnic this week end? Then I know you're hoping, as I am, for warm, sunny weather. But if it should turn out be chilly or rainy, don't let that interfere with your plans. Go ahead and have your picnic anyhow . . . at home. That way your family won't feel let down, and you won't have to rustle up a regular meal at the last minute.

THIRST AID

It's no picnic being thirsty on a picnic, so be sure to take plenty of refreshing soft drinks on your outing! You'll find a big variety of "whistle wetters" at your A&P . . . each as enjoyable as the other, and all thrifly priced. Make A&P your thirst aid headquarters!

QUICK AND SLICK

If you go in for campfire cookery, you'll get yards of enjoyment from ENCORE Prepared SPAGHETTI. It's mighty good cooked at home on the range, too, so get a few cans at the A&P. Made with a tasty sauce of tomatoes, spices and cheese, all you have to do is heat it. And if you want an extra hearty dish for 8 hearty eaters, combine 2 cans of this swell spaghetti with 2 cans of red beans; mix well in a skillet; add 2 tps. of chili powder, and heat thoroughly. Add green pepper and onion rings if you like 'em. Grand indoors or out!

SWANK FOR SALADS

For the best-dressed cole slaw or vegetable salad that ever went a-picnicking, try this tangy dressing made with WHITE HOUSE MILK, the creamy-rich evaporated milk sold at the A&P. Just blend ½ tsp. prepared mustard, ½ tsp. salt, 2 tps. sugar, a dash of cayenne and 1 cup undiluted WHITE HOUSE EVAPORATED MILK. Add 1 tbsp. vinegar gradually, stirring till thick. Enough for 8 servings of salad.

KING-SIZE SANDWICHES

Where there's a grill, there's a way . . . to enjoy MARVEL HAMBURGER ROLLS in their special role of partners for sizzling hamburgers. But even if your picnic equipment doesn't include a grill, these delicious, freshly baked rolls from the A&P can have their innings on your outings. They're perfect for big he-man sandwiches of all kinds because they hold so much filling.

AT THE LIBRARY . . .

There are some unusually fine books in the latest additions to the Memorial Hall Library—especially in the fields of non-fiction—and the subject matter ranges all the way from anthropology to the design of home freezers and the anti-social custom of head-hunting in New Guinea. All are available for home use, and any may be reserved.

Apes, Giants and Man Weidenrich
An outstanding anthropologist outlines modern scientific theory on the physical development of man, and concludes that the human form evolved from a race of giants.

A Pilgrim Returns to Cape Cod

Snow
The classic story of Cape Cod, with all the popular and hundreds of lesser known incidents that compose the history of the Cape told in the most entertaining manner. Author is well-known for his previous books, "Romance of Boston Bay," "Storms and Shipwrecks of New England," etc.

Three Came Home

Keith
All who met the Keith family in the author's earlier book, "Land Below the Wind," will find this human, sometimes heart-breaking, record of their years as war-prisoners as reassuring as a letter from a long-lost friend. For three and a half years they underwent the indignities, cruelties and deprivations of which she writes, while interned in Japanese concentration camps.

How It Happens

Buck
Because Pearl Buck wanted to know why the German people felt that they could gain something from repeated wars, she developed a friendship with a sensitive German woman in New York and from her learned the backgrounds of the German personality. Her comparison of that personality with the American personality is her warning to us that what has happened to one country's people can happen to another — our own!

Two on a Continent

Foldes
A young Hungarian newspaper woman married a concert pianist and together they set out to discover America. This is her picture of the United States as something new and varied and fascinating. Here is the country we know so well as it seemed to these young people, filled with humor and spontaneity: Here are the famous people they met, among them Einstein, the Franz Werfels and Benny Goodman.

Our Roving Bible

Nelson
And this is more than interesting! As the author proves, "the Bible is the most gadabout book since time began." He presents a picture of its wanderings and its effect on the English-speaking peoples. This book is both old and new, running in its comment from the Bible's entrance into English, through such modern subjects as the Gallup Poll and our current radio programs.

There Was Once a Slave

Graham
Here is the heroic story of Frederick Douglass, a cotton field slave, thirty years before the Civil War. His learning to read changed his despair to hope, and helped him escape from Maryland to New York and then New Bedford. This is the fascinating record in a public career, of the causes he sponsored, the influence he exerted over every progressive cause of his day, his influence in Washington and his appointment as minister to Haiti.

Dean
These are the twenty-one vital points that were raised in discussion groups with the answers as they were given at the time. Half are about Russia's growth as a nation, and the remainder are concerned with the aims of Russia's foreign policy. The reader gathers that the fundamental internal difference between the two countries is that Russia contends our monopoly capitalism will destroy the Soviet system, and our reply is that Russia's opposition to capitalism will try to ruin the system of free enterprise. Mrs. Dean points out that difference of opinion need not result in permanent disharmony.

UNEMPLOYMENT CHECKS TOPS

The great est weekly amount of unemployment compensation benefit payments in the ten-year history of this law was made last week when checks totaling up to $1,400,000 were mailed to the unemployed throughout Massachusetts. The amount represents some 66,000 checks.

Why Save Used Fats

If the Massachusetts housewife is looking for proof—which she probably isn't because of her wholehearted cooperation in the past—there are three good reasons for turning in used fats today.

The world shortage of fats and oils for industrial and food purposes is more severe right now than during any of the war years, says the University of Massachusetts Extension Service. Besides that, used fat helps make things you want: soap, electrical appliances, fabrics, tires, automobiles. And just as a clincher—your meat dealer will give you as much as four times what he used to for each pound of used cooking fat.

Increased returns on the used fat you turn in will help you cut down meat bills besides seeing that industrial users get the used fat they need to make the things you want.

BETTER BE NUTS

"I'm afraid you're a bit crazy, old chap."

"Is that so? And how about yourself?"

"Oh, I'm perfectly sane."

"Then I'm happy to be crazy, brother."

This Sober Town

We're peeved at Willie, the Whip-poor-will.

It was about 5 o'clock one morning recently. We're not too sure that that was one of the three mornings that the sun decided to rise this May, but we do know definitely that Willie awoke early. Not only that—he woke us early.

And was he excited! Whip-poor-will, whip-poor-will, whip-poor-will—hurrying through the last syllable as if he just couldn't wait to get back to the first. Whoever he was calling to must have been particularly unintelligent (we almost said "awfully dumb" but then we remembered we were in Andover), because Willie shrilled it loud and clear enough so that the message should have been gotten the first time.

With all due regard to Mr. Audubon, we didn't like it. In fact, had it continued much longer, we would have probably decided to whip poor will within an inch of his life.

Pack 71—Shawsheen School

The monthly Pack meeting was held on Wednesday evening, May 28, in the Scout room of the Shawsheen school. The meeting was in charge of Cubmaster Henry Bellevau. This will be the last meeting of the year until next September. There will be an outing and picnic in June. District Commissioner Walter Caswell was present at the meeting.

Troop 71

The troop met on Monday evening, May 26, under the direction of Scoutmaster Everett MacAskill. Patrol meetings were held, with knot tying as the theme for the evening. Signalling drill under the direction of Scoutmaster MacAskill was next on the program. District Commissioner Walter C. Caswell presented the Second Class badges to Scout Arthur Botsch of the Bear patrol and Scout Louis Mirisola of the Wolf patrol. Patrol Leader Everett MacAskill, Jr., of the Bear patrol and Patrol Leader Jack Caswell of the Wolf patrol completed First Class signalling, and Scout Charles Schulze of the Wolf patrol passed Second Class knife and hatchet, service and uniform, and oath and law. The following Scouts will attend the three-day camporee in June at Camp Dad Sargent, Pumps Pond: Tommy Wilkinson, Jack Caswell, Ed Dean, Emery LeTourneau, Louis Fiedler, Scott Gerrish, Peter Dunlop, Peter Miller, David McCarthy, Joe Spinella, Roy Nightingale, Raymond Skea, Eddie Sullivan, Bill McCarthy, Arthur Botsch, Peter Caswell, David Wilkinson, and Everett MacAskill, Jr. Six Scouts have signed up for Camp Onway: Scouts David Wilkinson, Peter Caswell, Emery LeTourneau, Edward Dean, Peter

Miller and Everett MacAskill, Jr. Several other Scouts are undecided and may sign later. The troop will go to camp the last two weeks in July. The next meeting will be held on Monday, June 2.

Troop 76—Ballardvale

Members of the troop held a waste paper collection on Saturday, May 24, in Ballardvale. The troop met on Thursday evening under the leadership of Scoutmaster P. W. Moody. The troop has grown in size this year, and enthusiastic meetings have been held with a great deal of interest in fixing up the new Scout meeting room.

19th Annual Camporee

The annual North Essex Council Camporee will be held on June 6, 7, and 8 at Camp Dad Sargent, Pumps Pond. There will be church services for both the Protestant and Catholic faiths.

Camp Onway

Scoutmasters are urged to line up the Scouts who will attend Camp Onway this summer so that registrations may be filed at Scout headquarters promptly. Many Scouts will be disappointed this year if delays are experienced because of the large number of Scouts who will attend from other districts.
